Subject Advertising infant delinquencies

In part II of the offl Gazette for 22d oct 1903, the following Notification No 9, dated the 20th october 1903, appeared ——

"D Basappa, a boy of the V Form of the Chikballapur High school has been expelled for gross misconduct and insubordination he shall not be admitted into any Government or aided High school in the Mysore State before the 1st January 1905"

(Signed) H J Bhabha
Inspr Genl Edn

On perusing the above, the secretary wanted to know

"Is such a notification anywhere found in any Br Gazette? This seems to be a curious way of advertising infant delinquencies"

The two issues of the Fort St George Gazette (Dec, 2, 1902 and 16th Dec 1902) contain ~~two~~ notifications issued by the University of Madras (signed by the Registrar) relating to candidates debarred from appearing for the subsequent examinations, on account of their having been found guilty of malpractice

The Educational rules (Madras) Page 14, Section 30 seventh subd, lay down that Students guilty of grave misconduct may be expelled from the institutions for a period to be determined by the Director of Public Instruction The rules however do not say that the names of the candidates so punished should be published in the Gazette

I suppose we may leave the matter alone, though I think it is a pity that such boyish freaks should be so widely advertised

I agree. The matter may be treated as closed 9-11-03
